MI Cattlemen’s 23rd Annual Expo A Success for the Beef Industry

OKEMOS - The 23rd Annual Michigan Beef Expo gave cattle producers an opportunity to showcase some of the best seedstock genetics available. This year’s special event included eight breed shows and sales, youth contests, an extensive indoor trade show and a junior steer and heifer show.

Approximately 77 consignors exhibited 142 head of cattle from Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania. The Expo Supreme Champion Bull was awarded to the Maine Anjou Champion Bull consigned by Encore Livestock Enterprises, from Gilman, IL. He sold for $2,600 to Stephen Peters of Memphis, MI. The Supreme Champion Heifer was also consigned by Encore Livestock Enterprises and sold for $4,500 to Mark Fuller from Big Rapids, MI. The high selling female overall was a Maine Anjou heifer consigned by DeLong Cattle Company, from Cass City, MI. She sold for $4,800 to Tim Heckman from Bradford, IL. The high selling male overall was a Hereford bull consigned by Breasbois Farms. He sold to Causie Ranch, Leslie, MI for $7,000.

The Beef Expo, a project of the Michigan Cattlemen’s Association, is designed to promote the beef industry through sales, shows and displays of seedstock genetics, focus media attention on the beef industry, unite the various breeds and provide an opportunity to share in a major statewide beef industry promotional event.
