Cattlemen Hold Successful Michigan Beef Expo

E. LANSING – High quality cattle and rapid bidding, an extensive trade show and several youth livestock competitions all contributed to making the 26th Annual Michigan Beef Expo the most successful on record. As Michigan’s largest cattle industry event, the Michigan Beef Expo includes seedstock shows and sales for the Angus, Hereford, Limousin, Chianina, Maine-Anjou, Shorthorn and Simmental breeds. An indoor trade show featured a wide variety of cattle industry products, services and supplies while youth competed in various cattle industry contests, livestock judging competitions and exhibited cattle at the Block & Bridle Junior Steer and Heifer show.

Consignors exhibited 105 head of cattle and 24 embryo and semen lots from Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Ontario and Pennsylvania. The Supreme Champion Bull was Lot #320, a Hereford consigned by the Gale Laudeman Family of Breeman, Ind. He was purchased by the Causie Ranch of Leslie, Mich. for $3,500. The Supreme Champion Female was Lot #419, a Simmental cow consigned by DeLong Cattle Co. of Cass City, Mich. and sold to Behrenway Farm of Clarksville, Mich. for $6,400. Both Supreme Champions received $500 courtesy of Rupp Seeds.

The high selling female was an Angus cow/calf pair that sold as Lot #132(w/132A) for $8,000 and was consigned by Bordner Farms of Sturgis, MI. The cow (132) was purchased by Black Anchor Stock Farm of North Branch, MI and the calf (132A) was purchased by Sierrah Bogs of Trinity, Texas. The high selling bull was also an Angus, Lot #113, consigned by Brian Filhart of Clare, Mich. He was sold to Don and Pat McKiernan of Richmond, Mich. for $5,700. Cattle and embryo consignments at the Michigan Beef Expo grossed $366,475. The females averaged $3,300 on 69 lots and 36 bulls averaged $3,403. Twenty-four embryo and semen packages averaged $678.
