Michigan Cattlemen Host Successful Beef Expo

E. LANSING – High quality cattle, friendly competition and rapid bidding made the 27th Annual Michigan Beef Expo a success for Michigan’s cattle industry. As the state’s largest cattle industry event, the Michigan Beef Expo included seedstock shows and sales for the Angus, Hereford, Chianina, Maine-Anjou, Shorthorn, Simmental and all other registered breeds (AORB’s). An indoor trade show featured a wide variety of cattle industry products, services and supplies while youth competed in various skills contests, livestock judging competitions and exhibited cattle at the MSU Block & Bridle Club’s Junior Steer and Heifer show.

Breeders consigned over 134 head of cattle from Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Ontario and Pennsylvania. The Supreme Champion Bull was Lot #415, WXC No Reservation, a Simmental consigned by WXC Cattle Company of Delton, Mich. The Supreme Champion Female was Lot #122, Rains Barbara CfTi, an Angus heifer consigned by Rains Angus of Mercer, Penn. Exhibitors of the Supreme Champion bull and female received $500 courtesy of Rupp Seeds.

The Supreme Champion bull was also the high selling bull at the Michigan Beef Expo. He sold for $6,500 to Charles Cryderman of Richmond, Mich. The high selling female was Lot #417, the Reserve Champion Simmental heifer consigned by Campbell Farms of St. Johns, Mich. She sold for $5,100 to Troy Todd of Reed City, Mich. Total consignments at the Michigan Beef Expo grossed $322,225. The bulls averaged $3,027 on 47 lots and 69 females averaged $2,577. Three embryos grossed $900, one flush grossed $1,000 and one unit of semen grossed $275.
